How did the Fund perform over the last six months?

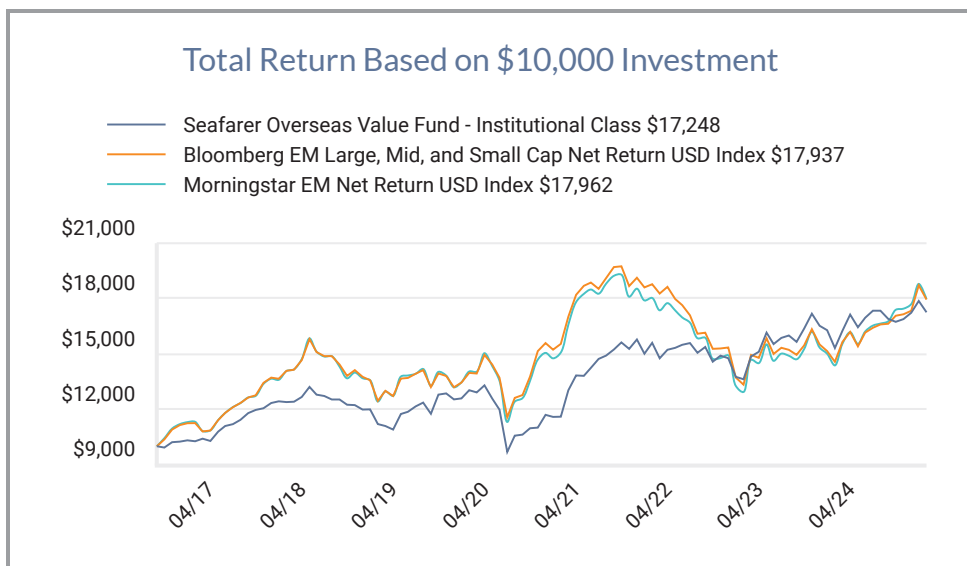

During the semi-annual period (May 1, 2024 to October 31, 2024), the Seafarer Overseas Value Fund's Institutional Class returned -0.50%, while the Fund's benchmark indices, the Bloomberg Emerging Markets Large, Mid, and Small Cap Net Return USD Index and the Morningstar Emerging Markets Net Return USD Index, returned 8.12% and 7.96%, respectively. Emerging market equities began the period driven by technology and AI-related developments. Then, in the second half of September, Chinese stocks surged following a string of policy announcements intended to stabilize China's economy. This rally in China shares led the benchmarks higher than the Fund.

In the pursuit of value in the emerging markets, Seafarer remains focused on finding individual companies whose value is driven by idiosyncratic company-specific developments.
